Hanover, September 21, O. S.

ON Thurſday laſt in the Evening a French Comedy was acted in the Caſtle here, at which were preſent His Majeſty, the Queen of Pruſſia, Prince Frederick, his Highneſs the Duke of York, and the whole Court; and on Friday there was a Ball in the Orangerie in Herrenhauſen Gardens, where was a ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and Perſons of Diſtinction. The Queen of Pruſſia after having dined at Herrenhauſen on Sunday laſt ſet out on her Return to Berlin, where her Majeſty propoſed to arrive in three Days: The Tenderneſs and Affection their Majeſties ſhewed at their taking Leave cannot be expreſs'd. His Highneſs the Duke of York intends to depart from hence To-Morrow for Oſnabrug. The King has not yet declared what Day he deſigns to go to the Gohre; but it is thought it will be in 10 Days or a Fortnight's Time. His Majeſty went a Shooting Yeſterday, as he generally does twice or thrice a Week, if the Weather permits; and (God be praiſed) he continues in perfect good Health.

Hague, Oct. 2, N. S. The States of Holland having lately aſſembled, ſpent ſome Time in drawing up a Repreſentation of all that they have done hitherto, towards putting into a proper Condition the Revenues and other publick Concerns of their own Province in particular, and of the Republick in general. Which Repreſentation they have delivered to the States General, with their earneſt Requeſt that their High Mightineſſes will in the moſt urgent Manner exhort and require the other Provinces to acquit themſelves of the Duty they owe to the State, for preventing the Decay of the publick Credit, and of the military and naval Force. M. Kalkoen who is appointed to go Ambaſſadour from this State to Conſtantinople, is preparing to ſet out on his Journey by the Way of Vienna, as ſoon as he receives the Sum of Money which is to be advanced to him out of the publick Treaſury. M. Boreel who is nominated to ſucceed M. Hop in the Embaſſy at the Court of France, ſets out for Paris in December next. Count Goloskin the new Muſcovite Envoy, has received and returned the Viſits of the Publick Miniſters here. M. Noot, who is now at Batavia, is nominated Governour of the Cape of Good Hope, in the Room of M. de Chavonne, who died ſome Time ago. Letters from Berlin adviſe, that M. Rumpf Miniſter of the States General, ſet out from thence the 19th paſt for Warſaw.

Whereas divers Perſons are travelling about in many Parts of the Kingdom, under the Pretence of collecting Charity Money for the Sufferers by Fire at the Town of Buckingham and other Places, by printed Letters, pretended to be ſigned by Juſtices of the Peace, and others, and particularly by the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the ſaid Town of Buckingham; which printed Letters have been delivered to the Miniſters and Church-Wardens of many Pariſhes in ſeveral of the Counties of England: Theſe are therefore to give Notice to all Juſtices of the Peace, and to all Miniſters, Church-Wardens, and others to whom ſuch Perſons ſhall come with ſuch printed Letters, that they do not receive the ſame, or collect any Money thereon, for that ſuch Collections, under the Pretence of Letters of Requeſt or Licence (and not under the Great Seal) are contrary to Law; and that the Perſons travelling with ſuch Letters are Vagabonds, and puniſhable as ſuch by Virtue of the ſeveral Statutes made for the Puniſhment of Vagabonds and ſturdy Beggars; and that the Perſons ſo offending will be proſecuted upon the Statutes in that Caſe made and provided.

London Aſſurance-Houſe, Sept. 24, 1725.

The Court of Directors of the London Aſſurance Company do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at their Houſe in Cornhill, on Friday the 1ſt of October next, at Eleven in the Forenoon, to conſider of a Dividend.
